

A research on “Value Chain Analysis of Poultry and Pineapple: Selected Cases of Bangladesh” published on 1st September, 2018 by jointly BARD and KREI (Korea Rural Economic Institute).

The research was funded by KREI. The President of KREI and Director General of BARD provided "Foreword" separately for the book. The research was completed within three months after signing agreement with KREI (starting from preparing research proposal, data collection, report writing, report editing and upto getting it published).

The research work has been appreciated and demanded by different stakeholders including Bangladesh Agricultural University (BAU) in the mean time. The book is available at the Publication Section of BARD, Cumilla.
